Dear Mr. Miner:

I am honored that once again you have invited me to speak to the Mid-America Committee. Regrettably, I find that my time is fully obligated to official travel and other duties during that period, and so I am unable to accommodate you.

I wish you and your highly esteemed organization the best of success both now and in the future. Thank you for your interest in and support of the Central Intelligence Agency, and kindly express my regrets to your membership.

Sincerely,

W. J. William J. Casey
